Using TV Everywhere on Mobile Devices

After logging in at www.watchTVEverywhere.com you will get a page displaying the programs that you are able to select and watch.

You will only see programs displayed that are part of your package/channel lineup you are subscribed to.

Choose A Channel On A Handheld Device

Select a channel you'd like to watch. You will be prompted to download the free program app from the app store (Apple) or play store (Android).

You will need to input your iTunes password to download the app.

Once program app is downloaded you will be at the programmers home screen. At this screen you will need to login, top right, to the programming web app.

Follow the online instructions to login/authenticate your TV account. In most cases, you do not need to create registrations with the network. Try clicking Watch Now and you'll be asked to choose your TV provider.

Select "Don't see your provider? See the full list"

Select Solarus.

Enter the email address and password you registered with for this service.

Click login. At this point, you will have access to the content currently available from the channel provider.
